Stallion Came Home Passes Away

JBBA stallion Came Home (Gone West - Nice Assay) passed away due to acute abdominal conditions on July 8. The stallion was 22 years old.

Came Home, who won 9 of 12 starts including the Pacific Classic G1, Santa Anita Derby G1 and Hopeful S. G1, began his stud career in the U.S.A. in 2003, then was relocated to Japan from the 2008 breeding season.

His offspring include G3 winner Passion in the U.S.A., as well as G1 winner Inti and Graded Stakes winners Tagano Tonnerre and Sound Rihanna in Japan.
